Bryan yesterday sent a telegram to Judge Taft, President-elect, wishing him a successful administration. Judge Taft promptly acknowledged receipt of same——The second squaron of the American battleship fleet which has been the guest of the Chinese government left yesterday for Olongapo, to join the first squadron under the command of Admiral Sperry——Rear Admiral Spillsbury, chief of the Navigation Bureau, in his annual report recommended the establishment of a defense of naval bases in the Philippines. It looks like the Republicans traded several Governors for President.

Real estate was on the move last Tuesday and squatter voters moved with it.

The whirlwind of last Tuesday scattered the straw-votes to the four corners of the earth.

We will believe the Democratic party to be dead when, and only when we abandon faith in American manhood and love of independence.

Mr. Bryan will come to the conclusion after awhile that the verdict of a national electorate is as uncertain as that of a jury.

Because the Democrats have been defeated at the polls is no reason why they should be disheartened. Their principles are bound to prevail in the end.

What a slam it would be on Papa-in-Law Roosevelt if it should be true that Son-in-Law Longworth has been defeated—and how the whole country would laugh.

The Republican newspapers need not shed tears over the death of the Democratic party. If they think it is dead they have a mighty startling awakening awaiting them.

No doubt Congressman Longworth thinks his Rock Island speech had something to do with the results of Tuesday's election. He is just about the calibre of man to think so.

Congressman Longworth's defeat would indicate that the voters of the First Ohio district do not approve of the idea of keeping the presidential office in the Roosevelt family for several generations.

One would think that Congressman Fowler, on the platform he announces as candidate for Speaker, would win out against Speaker Cannon, whose platform is his record as Czar of the House.

It's about time we were hearing of something doing on the Venezuelan coast. The Dutch fleet seems to be slow in assembling for the purpose of enforcing Holland's demands on Castro.

If old man Rockefeller has any sense of humor in his make up he must have been greatly amused at the stir his announcement of intention to vote for Taft created among the campaign managers in both parties.

In 1824 Daniel Webster predicted that if Andrew Jackson were elected President the "Government would be overthrown and the Judiciary destroyed." We mention this fact for the consolation of those who fear similar disaster from the results of last Tuesday's election deplorable as they were.

CANVASSING BOARD

Met Yesterday as Required by Law and Declared Result of Tuesday's Election.

THE FIGURES IN DETAIL

Bryan's Majority 1,311, Kitchin's 1,827, Godwin's 1,918—Haar Leads County Ticket and Robertson and Montgomery Commissioners.

The county canvassing board, composed of one officer from each of the polling places, met at the Court House yesterday at noon and after receiving the returns from all precincts and duly examining the same, officially declared the result of Tuesday's general election in New Hanover, as will be seen by tabulated statement elsewhere in today's paper.

The majority for Bryan was 1,311, for Kitchin 1,827, for Godwin 1.918, for Empie, State Senator, 2,197, his Republican opponent from Brunswick, Walter Leonard, receiving only 17 votes. Morton, for the House, without opposition, received 2,161, and the county ticket was led by Register of Deeds John Haar with 2,229, while Sheriff Cowan and Treasurer Green were close seconds with 2,228. Messrs. Robertson and Montgomery led the ticket for commissioners with 2,219. Adams for judge of the 15th district to succeed the late Judge Fred Moore, of Asheville, received 2,090 votes against 272 for his Republican opponent, Virgil S. Lusk.

The canvassing board organized yesterday by the election of Mr. A. G. Hankins, of Third ward, chairman and Mr. J. H. Sykes, of Fifth ward, secretary. Other members of the board were Messrs. F. T. Skipper, first ward; W. W. Hodges, second ward; J. R. Bear, Fourth ward; J. Herbert Johnson, Cape Fear township; B. E. Hollis, Masonboro; Melvin Horne, Federal Point; J. A. Everett, Harnett; J. A. Jordan, Delgado. Chairman W. A. French and Woodus Kellum, Esq., members of the County Board of Elections, were present much of the afternoon advising with the canvassers as to the requirements of the law. There were no contests and the work of tabulating the result was largely clerical. Kitchin, for Governor, ran behind the remainder of the State ticket about 11 votes. There were no irregularities in the electoral ticket with the exception of one vote for the Hearst Independence electors in First ward, among the names appearing on the printed ticket being thise of Mr. W. V. Sellers, Sixth district, and W. T. Penny, Third district. There were 1,862 votes for the Bryan electors except for Josiah William Bailey Democratic elector at large, who received but 1,857, the scratching of his name being largely in the third ward, where H. L. Cook also received two less than the other Democratic electors. Settle led the Republican electoral ticket with 551, while the others received only 511.

Vote For Magistrates.

Constable W. B. Savage led the "judicial ticket" in Wilmington township with 1,905 votes, the 25 magistrates being elected in the following vote: N. E. Gallagher 1896, J. F. Craig 1899, J. M. Woolard 1897, W. H. Coleman 1896, W. McD. Evans 1901, J. G. L. Gieschen 1899, M. Newman 1895, Edwin Bunting 1896, T. W. Wood 1897, M. J. Heyer 1896, John J. Furlong 1891, T. Donlan 1897, W. L. King 1900, R. A. Burnett 1898, J. H. Sykes 1895. The vote for magistrates and constables in the other townships was as follows:

Cape Fear—J. H. Johnson 63, D. E. Kerr 63. For Constable, N. B. Chadwick 61.

Harnett—Delgado, Gerrit Walker, Orin Johnson and J. E. Jones for magistrates, 86 each; Seven-Mile Post, 38 each. For Constable, T. M. Ellis, 35 in Delgado and George R. Smith 66 in Delgado and 38 at the Seven-Mile Post.

Masonboro—For magistrates, W. G. Fergus 21, J. P. Herring 25 and John G. Wagner 13. No constable voted for.

An abstract of the vote in the county was made and certified to by members of the board yesterday and will be transmitted in duplicate and triplicate as is required by law.

SUPREME COURT OPINIONS

Decisions Rendered in Number of Cases at Raleigh Yesterday—Advices to Guard Headquarters All Quiet at Concord.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 5.—Seven appeals were disposed of with opinions and otherwise by the Supreme Court today as follows:

Hawk vs. Lumber Co., Craven, defendant's appeal dismissed, plaintiff's new trial. Wilkinson vs. Dunbar, Hyde, new trial. State vs. A. C. L. Railroad, Wilson, new trial. Rich vs. Morissey, Sampson, affirmed in both appeals. Rabon vs. A. C. L. Railroad, Columbus, no error. Ludlow vs. Fayetteville, Cumberland, affirmed. Houser vs. Bonsal, Anson, reversed. Culbertson vs. Morgan, Union, modified and affirmed. Teal vs. Templeton. Anson, no error. Leak vs. Bank, Anson, new trial. Rice vs. McAdams, Orange, affirmed. McClintock vs. Insurance Co., Guilford, affirmed. Wharton vs. Greensboro, affirmed. Clothing Co. vs. Stadium, Guilford, affirmed. Elliott vs. Railroad, Craven appeal withdrawn at cost of defendant. Overman vs. Railroad, Wayne, appeal dismissed by consent.

Advices today from Concord at National Guard headquarters were to the effect that the trial of Will Graham, the negro carried from here yesterday to stand trial for criminal outrage of Miss Lucy Tucker, is progressing very quietly without the least indication of mob interference. The Raleigh Light Infantry, 50 men strong, is guarding the court at the request of the judge and solicitor, to prevent any effort to interfere with the trial. It is conceded now that the only danger of mob violence is in the event of failure to convict the negro. Then there would be danger of some effort to lynch the prisoner. And, too, there is some possibility of non-conviction since the identification of the negro by his victim is indefinite in that she is said to declare that while his voice and general appearance is that of her assailant, he does not seem to be as large a man as the fiend appeared to her.

CONGRESSMEN LOST

Republicans Will be Represented From Fifth Eight and Tenth Carolina Districts.

AS TO STATE MAJORITY

Figures of Respective Chairmen Widely at Variance—Results From Counties in The East—The Defeat of Brooks.

The canvassing boards in all counties in the State yesterday made official declaration of the vote in Tuesday's election, but the returns are very slow in reaching Raleigh. Democratic State Chairman Eller still contends that the State is Democratic by over 35,000 majority while Republican State Chairman Adams claims that the State Democratic majority will be less than 20,000.

The Fifth, Eighth and Tenth Congressional districts have been lost by the Democrats according to the official returns but both houses of the General Assembly are safely Democratic. Godwin carries the Sixth district for Congress by approximately 6,000 and Thomas the Third district by about 4,000. Advices received from over the State up to an early hour this morning are as follows:

The Fifth District.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 5.—By a gain of about 5,500 votes in the Fifth Congressional district over 1906 the Republicans have elected James M. Morehead by a majority of 364 over A. L. Brooks, Democrat, who was nominated to succeed W. W. Kitchin, Governor-elect.

Of the eleven counties of the district, Brooks carried four by a majority of 2,156 votes. Morehead carried seven by a majority of 2,520, making his net majority 364.

Surry county, which gave a Republican majority of 1,001 has been transferred from the Eighth to the Fifth district since 1896, when it gave a Republican majority of 429 against R. N. Hackett, who is also defeated by 1,700.

The Tenth District.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 5.—W. T. Crawford, Democrat, has been defeated by John G. Grant, Republican, for Congress by 355 majority in the Tenth North Carolina district.

From Republican Headquarters.

Greensboro N. C., Nov. 5.—At Republican State headquarters here it is claimed that Bryan's majority in North Carolina is less than 20,000. This is based on returns received from not more than half of the counties in which Republicans made phenomenal gains. Democrats are claiming a majority of about 40,000.

Official returns show the election of three Republican Congressmen—C. H. Cowles, in the Eighth district, by more than 1,600 majority; John G. Grant, in the Tenth district, by 359; and John M. Morehead, in the Fifth district, by 354.

From Chairman Eller.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 5.—State Democratic headquarters here will be closed tomorrow by State Chairman A. H. Eller, who leaves, he says, with the satisfaction of knowing the State is Democratic by over 35,000 so far as the State ticket is concerned, and that the Legislature that meets next January will be overwhelmingly Democratic, this in spite of the most adverse circumstances under which the Democratic campaign had to be conducted. The saddest advices that came in on the eve of the closing of headquarters was that the defeat of Crawford, Democrat, by Grant, Republican, in the Tenth district for Congress, was conceded by over 100 votes, and that Broks, Democrat, is defeated in the Fifth by Morehead, Republican, by not less than 300. This makes three of the ten North Carolina Congressmen Republican, including Cowles, who defeated Hackett in the Eighth district.

Pender's Good Majority.

Burgaw, Nov. 5.—The official vote of Pender in Tuesday's election was canvassed and officially declared today as follows: Bryan electors 930, Taft 373; Democratic majority 557. Thomas for Congress 1,033; E. W. Hill, Republican 282; Thomas' majority, 751. Kitchin for Governor 1,019, Cox 294; Democratic majority 738. The remainder of the State ticket is Democratic in a vote of 1,027 to 290 approximately. For Register of Deeds R. I. Durham defeats H. E. Peterson, Republican, in a vote of 1,073 to 250; W. T. Simpson defeats J. W. Rowe for surveyor in a vote of 1,017 to 289; W. H. Peden defeats W. Wells for coroner in a vote of 1,039 to 283 and W. R. Atkinson defeats B. B. Wooten for sheriff in a vote of 1,082 to 243. The Commissioners are Democratic in a vote of 1,026 to 280. For the Senate E. A. Hawes, Jr., receives 1,000 against 295 for J. T. Wilkins and will without a doubt represent the district composed of Pender and Duplin. For the House J. T. Foy is elected over E. McMoore in a vote of 981 to 324.

Brunswick's Official Vote.

Southport, N. C., Nov. 5.—The following are the Republican majorities in Brunswick county: Slocomb over Godwin for Congress 106; Leonard over Empie for the Senate, 224; Taylor for the House over Robbins, 279; Stanland for sheriff over J. Dillard Bellamy, 397; Brooks for treasurer over Russ 168; Jenrette for Register of Deeds over Ward, 291; Bennett, commissioner, over Dosher 154; Knox, commissioner, over Rich 216; Leonard, commissioner, over Ward 348. The count for State officers and electors was not finished at 8 o'clock tonight but they will probably run about the same as Slocomb and Godwin.

Duplin Safely Democratic.

Warsaw, Nov. 5.—Although the Republicans were claiming Duplin, the county is safely Democratic by between 600 and 700.

The Bladen Majority.

Elizabethtown, Nov. 5.—Bladen's official vote gives the following Democratic majorities: Bryan 472; Kitchin 614; Godwin 558; Perry for the House 513; County ticket 521 to 634.

ON MERRY MIDWAY

Second Performances of Elks' Burlesque Circus Witnessed By Large Audience.

SHOWS WELL PATRONIZED

Marriage in Cage of Savage Lions Will be Feature Tomorrow Afternoon. Award of Prizes Announced. Other Notes.

Although the weather yesterday afternoon and last evening was cold and uninviting, people old and young continued to throng the merry midway out at Festplatz, though the crowds were nothing like those of the day and night before.

There was no special down-town attraction yesterday but the Post Artillery Band, of Fort Caswell, gave a series of open-air concerts and kept the carnival spirit high among those who listened to the music. The feature at the grounds was the second production of the Elks Society Circus for the special benefit of ladies and children yesterday afternoon and for the general public last night. The many features were highly enjoyed and the "grand concert" following the performances by Taylor, the Tailor's Premier Minstrels was as good or better than the main show. Ringmaster Jas. H. Cowan presided at the afternoon and evening performances and everything passed off smoothly and delightfully.

The playing of the Sousa Orchestra under the direction of Professor F. G. King is conceded by even the orchestra itself to have been the worst ever heard under canvas. Mr. Henry Howard, the violin soloist, had a rare instrument devised from a tomato can and as the leader stepped to the platform, the audience was spellbound with the discord under the basso touch of Professor Jackson and his coworkers of musical iniquity. The fire department was represented by John Yates and the police had to be called out and the hose turned on to prevent further violence to the harmony of the proceedings.

The shows on the midway were well patronized afternoon and night and nothing occurred to mar the happiness of everyone present. The attractions all seem to be clean and well conducted. The feature tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock will be a marriage in a cage of the fiercest lions with Ferarri's menagerie, a couple having volunteered for the ceremony. The tent will be enlarged to take care of the crowd and an admission of 25 cents will be charged to witness the novel and most extraordinary performance.

The committee announced yesterday that the prize for the most original pony outfit in the civic and floral parade on Tuesday was awarded to Mrs. W. B. Beery, the rig being driven by Misses Dorothy Beery and Annie Thomas. The prize for the best decorated baby carriage was awarded to Mrs. Tucker.

HELD UP AND ROBBED

Brunswick Farmer Claims He Was Robbed by Two Negroes.

At the point of a pistol flashed in his face by a negro, while a confederate demanded his money, C. T. Lewis, a Brunswick farmer, made complaint to the police yesterday that he had been robbed of $165, at Eighth and Princess streets, Wednesday night about 11:30 o'clock. On account of their insidious way of approaching him and their hurried escape, he said that it is hardly probable that he could recognize either of them, if seen again.

Lewis was returning to the city from the Elksfest, having been separated from a number of friends who accompanied him. He was making his way to the Bonitz Apartment House, when the robbers made their demand of him. He stated to the police that he lives at Town Creek, Brunswick county, and brought naval stores to the city, which he sold and intended to settle some debts, which he was owing in the city.

At Schutt's Pharmacy.

Handsome tables and chairs to conform to the general furnishings of the store have been placed in Schutt's Pharmacy, at Second and Princess streets, which is now one of the prettiest and cosiest places in the city. Mr. Tennent, an expert soda fountain man, has been engaged by Mr. Schutt and will be in charge at the store in the future.

PARTY FEALTY AND INDEPENDENCE.

The questions of party fealty and independence in voting are coming more to the front every year in the minds of the people of this country, especially in the South. The conflict between a man's duty to his party and the exercise of his own judgment in the casting of his ballot is often a serious one and at times it is hard to reconcile the two. On the one hand it must be admitted that the success of a political party depends on unity of action of its members. The majority rule must be observed or the party will go to pieces. When a man goes into his party's convention and finds himself opposed by a majority of the same on any party policy or nomination of a candidate it is his duty to yield to the will of the majority. In this way only can party organization be kept up, and all must admit that there must be organization in order to keep up a political party. On the other hand a too strict observance of this rule takes away from a man his independence of political thought and makes of him a mere political automaton, the creature of the leaders and bosses of his party. No one will deny that such condition is hurtful to any State or nation if carried too far. It tends to debase politics and in the end will cause the disruption of any party.

The difficult question is where to draw the line between these two principles. Both are necessary to the well conducting of the political affairs of the States and of the nation, but there is danger when either one encroaches too far on the other. From every man who claims to belong to a political party there is due fealty to that party, but at the same time every voter should exercise his own judgment to a large extent in performing his duty as a voter.

THE GOVERNMENT RUNNING ITSELF.

The American Republic is comparatively a young country, but it seems its government is old enough to take care of itself. For a week before the election it had to do so, and it seems to have gotten along very well at the business. There was only one of the heads of the various Government Departments at his post and he was so busy managing the campaign of his candidate for the election for President that he had no time to devote to the affairs of the Government. Under this state of affairs everything went on just as well and the wheels of government ran as smoothly as when all the heads of departments are at their posts of duty and aiding each other in steering the ship of State. With no one to hoist or furl sails, with no man at the wheel, the old ship went sailing on with never a rock or a breaker encountered.

THE PEERLESS LEADER.

Under the above heading the Times-Union of Jacksonville, Fla., on the day after the election contained an editorial from which we make the following extract:

"The peerless leader has again gone down in defeat, but in victory or defeat he stands without a rival among Americans, peerless in spite of the sneers of the small men who would deride him. When the returns were received last night he was entertaining guests and seemed least interested of all in the result. After a campaign that probably no other man on earth could have stood, with steady nerve and with cheerful heart, he was still ready to face the news of his defeat. Mr. Bryan will probably never be President, but as a private citizen he towers above mere Presidents. What President ever had the personal following that clings to him through defeat as well as success? He needs no sympathy; he is rather to be envied. The American people are the losers by his defeat."

The News and Observer of yesterday had a big head over a press dispatch from Smith's Falls, Ontario, which was very misleading and must have caused alarm to many people in this State who read it and before finding out that it did not conform to the facts stated in the article. The heading was: "$500,000 Fire at Pembroke, Carolina Town of 5,500 Inhabitants Devastated by Fire." The dispatch was a brief account of a fire in Pembroke, the county seat of Renfrow county, Ontario. The "Carolina Town" of Pembroke is a small village or railway station in Robeson county, where the Seaboard Air Line and the Atlantic Coast Line railroads cross each other and has a population of perhaps three score people.

"We have no idea to what extent the Democratic ticket was scratched yesterday in Greensboro or anywhere else. But we are certain of one thing, the man who marks up his ticket to suit himself should feel some delicacy in asserting his claims to the privilege of a Democratic primary."—Greensboro Telegram, 4th.

Every now and then some Democratic paper comes out with some such idea, but it does not go down with the party. As the Charlotte Observer says, the Democratic party would soon be a small and an exclusive organization were it to carry out this plan. At the same time we do not advocate the scratching of tickets by Democrats.

The next thing is to "wait and see" whether Taft soon after his inauguration will call the Sixty-first Congress in extraordinary session for the purpose of revising the tariff, as he advocated during the campaign should be done; and if he should do so whether he will advocate its revision downward or upward. We have little idea that the people will get any relief by way of reduction of the tariff by the congressmen whose term will begin on March 4th next.

"But a day ago and it was the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party. Now it is the time for all good men to come to the aid of business."—Greensboro Telegram.

Well said, and we hope people all over the State, and in fact in all parts of the South will take the advice of the Telegram and turn to business—unite in help building up our country. Let's all get together and start the industrial ball a-rolling.

We suppose that those papers which headed their election reports Wednesday "Taft Probably Elected," or "It Looks Like Taft," have found out by this time that there is the strongest kind of probability that he will have a majority of the votes of the electoral college.

In another column we publish editorial comments on the election from some of the leading papers of the country, which we think will be of interest to our readers as showing public opinion on the results.

Present indications warrant the conclusion that John A. Johnson, of Minnesota, and Judson Harmon, of Ohio, will be the leading candidates for the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1912.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—It is announced from New York that the metropolis will spend more money for the removal of snow from its streets this year than ever before. Evidently it must be known in advance how much snow will fall and have to be removed, or will that make no difference?—Virginian Pilot.

—Now that the fleet is headed homeward, sincere satisfaction may be expresed that none of the minatory suggestions which accompanied its sailing have been referred to throughout the entire cruise. From the ports of South America to the ports of Eastern Asia the whole progress of the fleet has been marked by the interchange of the most sincere professions of peace and good will. The presence of our ships may have incidentally been a reminder of the country's power, but it was nowhere accepted as being other than a pledge of the earnest desire of the American people to be at peace with all men. If any end, more immediately practical, has been served by the cruise of the battleships, it relates to the present and future of the United States as one of the great powers of the Pacific. —Journal of Commerce.

—To educate the people to any real knowledge of political principles and policies in an exciting campaign of three months is impossible. With able speakers seeking to befog the issues and hide the vital questions at stake the mind of the average man only becomes doubly confused. Now that the election is a thing of the past we should devote ourselves to a close study in the light of reason and common sense. That the American people or any large fraction of them should have been deceived by the transparent humbugs of Rooseveltism and have accepted as the friend of a people the man who has preached the doctrines of Hamilton all his life and practiced them whenever he could do so without danger to himself, is almost beyond belief. We have considered ourselves fit for self-government, but if we can be led astray by the first specious demagogue that chooses to flatter when he must and flourish the big stick when he dares is to make us distrustful of ourselves.—Florida Times Union.

—It is not every day that a crowned head permits himself to be interviewed for publication; in fact, the rulers of Europe seldom, if ever, grant newspaper interviews. Therefore, no little astonishment was caused some days ago by the publication in the London Daily Telegraph of an interview with Emperor William of Germany, which was truly sensational in character, and was meant to show that there existed actually no cause for enmity between the people of Great Britain and Germany. Although the interview bore the earmarks of Emperor William's peculiar opinions, there was at first a general disposition to regard the interview as spurious, mainly because of the well-known custom of crowned heads never to submit to the interviewer. When it was admitted by the German official world that the interview was genuine, Germany was astounded, and the rest of the world was little less amazed.—New Orleans Picayune.

—Prof. Robert T. Kerlin, of the Virginia State Normal, presents a defense of the "Solid South" worthy of consideration. He thinks the reasons for the political homogeneity of that section are more than merely traditional or fanciful. They are, he says, "founded on the principles of free government and true political science." The people of the South "believe in Democratic principles and are hostile to Republican principles; adhere to Democratic policies and repudiate Republican policies and are devoted to the cause of their own freedom and domination." The Democratic doctrines to which the South still holds allegiance, as enumerated by Prof. Kerlin, are State sovereignty, tariff for revenue only and the integrity of local government. Professor Kerlin refuses to believe that these doctrines are dead, and he hopes that as to them the South will always be "solid." He fears also that unless the South remains solid the "black cloud of allied negro and while rule" will overspread the land with a new era of carpet-baggery, and the safe-guard against this, in his judgment, is the substantial unity of the South's white voters. —Washington Herald.

—Monroe Enquirer: Seven men who have never been convicted of crime are serving time on the chain gang in this county. These men have been arrested for various offenses and have been bound over to Superior Court and not being able to give bond have voluntarily gone to the chain gang and are wearing stripes and working like convicts until their trial times comes in Superior Court. It is presumed that these volunteer road builders will plead guilty of the crimes whereof they are charged and when they are sentenced credit will be given them for time served on the roads. Soon after the last term of Superior Court for the trial of criminal cases a negro was put in jail to await trial at the November term, and being alone in jail he begged to be allowed to go to the roads and break rock, and that fellow has been making a splendid hand since last August. There are now 22 convicts besides the seven volunteers on the chain gang.

BRYAN'S DEFEAT

Comments of the Press on the Results of the Election.

In the battle of the ballots by which the American people have just decided their choice for the presidency it is evident that once more the Democratic party overestimated its strength, with Mr. Bryan as its leader, and retires from the field leaving the enemy in possession of practically every stronghold.

The successful candidate has committed himself to the policy of calling a special session of Congress for the purpose of revising the tariff by its friends, and that offers the American people an objective point towards which to look, though it would be misleading to pretend that any real reform of the protective tariff is expected from the party in power.

Mr. Bryan made a game fight and once more has lost. It was one of the most notable campaigns ever made by a candidate for any office, but unfortunately he has had to accustom himself to defeat and he will bear the new ordeal with fortitude.—Atlanta Journal (Dem.)

To the Democracy of Bryan must the country continue to look for the accomplishment of what Bryan would do. Defeated for election for the third time, Bryan himself will never again be a candidate, nor do we at the present time think he should be. But he is the genius of our creed, and our best friend and adviser. So long as he lives, Bryan will be the Great Man in the affections of his party, and to him we shall turn for advice and guidance.—Richmond Journal (Dem.)

As to whether or not Mr. Bryan is the strongest man the Democrats could have nominated there has been and will continue to be a difference of opinion. It is quite certain that Mr. Bryan failed to gain the confidence of the business men of the country, and the wage earning element, depending upon the business element for its wages were influenced by the business sentiment. While there was no doubt of Mr. Bryan's sincerity and good intentions there was a doubt as to his fitness for the great office of President. This doubt contributed more than anything else to Democratic defeat.

Mr. Bryan has made three trials for the presidency, and it is a safe conclusion that he will not make another. He ought to be satisfied, if he is not, that while the American people have great respect for him and are proud of him as an American citizen, they are not willing to trust him with the administration of the nation's affairs.—Savannah News (Dem.)

Mr. Taft owes his election less to his own strength than to Mr. Bryan's weakness.

This fatal weakness was apparent to The World months before either of the national conventions convened. Day after day we warned the Democracy against it. The morning after Mr. Taft's nomination this newspaper declared without reservation that "Bryan's nomination means Taft's election," and the vote yesterday abundantly vindicated this prediction.

Mr. Bryan's friends insisted, however, that he was entitled to another nomination backed by a united party. They had their way. Mr. Bryan received his nomination, and a party more united than it has been since 1892 loyally supported him; but even a united party could not overcome the handicap of Mr. Bryan's political record. He was weaker than his party as shown by the vote for Governor in New York, Minnesota, Illinois, and elsewhere; weaker than his issues, which he made still weaker by the stupendous folly of posing as Roosevelt's heir.

—Mr. Bryan's overwhelming defeat is made the more significant by reason of Mr. Taft's vunerability. The Republican candidate had to bear the burden of general hard times; of a million men out of employment; of business interests complaining and dissatisfied; of a steadily increased cost of living; of an unparalleled disaffection of labor leaders; of an unparalleled disaffection of the negro vote; of Republican factional fights in the great pivotal States of New York, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois; of a reactionary platform which he was obliged to modify in his speech of acceptance; of an insidious use of religious prejudice and bigotry against Mr. Taft's liberal and advanced belief; of a popular resentment against Mr. Roosevelt's determination to name his successor and a Proxy.—New York World (Dem.)

It is conditions and not explanations that really count. The national election in which the people of the United States have just determined to retain the Republican party in power, with Mr. Taft in the White House, is a condition that belongs now to the future rather than the past. But explanations—not criminations nor yet excuses—sometimes bring a helpful understanding to conditions which the present and the future hold—an understanding through which they may be the better met. Whatever may have been the result of Democratic success—and there are some millions who indulged a confidence that it would have brought a more wholesome and general national prosperity—there is no doubt about the fact that the election of Mr. Taft was due chiefly to the fact that business interests the country over believed that this result was essential to continued national commercial and financial welfare. It mattered not that panic came in the midst of plenty, under Republican rule; commercial faith in the potency of Republican Government remained unshaken. —Atlanta Constitution (Dem.)

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong; He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complains. Are You a Lard Eater?

Half the time when a person feels blue and out of sorts you may take it for granted that he is a victim of the "lard habit." Lard-cooked food and good stomachs are never friends for long. Lard food is not healthful food and no ordinary stomach can thoroughly digest it.

Lard comes from the pig-sty; Cottolene from the cotton fields of the Sunny South. Lard is greasy, indigestible, and sometimes absolutely harmful; Cottolene makes food digestible, nutritious, delicious. Cottolene is the perfect shortening and frying medium. It is pure and healthful. It contains not an ounce of hog-fat.

Cottolene is today in use by thousands of housewives who would no more think of going back to lard than they would of reverting to tallow dips for lighting their homes.

Cottolene is one of the products which pure food advocates always endorse.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

TWO FIRES YESTERDAY.

Two Alarms Yesterday Morning—Residence of Mr. Meister Damaged.

The decided drop in the temperature and the starting of many fires in hitherto unused fire places this Winter, made work for the Fire Department yesterday. Early during the morning the laddies were called to box 42, Front and Wooster streets, where trifling damage was done to the house of John Russian, and a few minutes later there was a long run across town to Second and Brunswick streets where trifling damage was also done to a house belonging to the Bear estate and occupied by Mary Lyon, colored.

The most serious fire occurred yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock when the two-story, six-room residence owned by the Garrell estate and occupied by Mr. C. L. Meister, at 119 Walnut street, was partially destroyed by a blaze which started from a defective flue. Nearly the entire second floor was gutted while much damage was done on the first by water, Mr. and Mrs. Meister losing heavily in damage to household effects and Messrs. W. R. Hay and W. W. Blair, who occupy rooms on the second floor, having lost nearly all their personal effects.

NEGRO DREW PISTOL.

Walter Murray Tried on Two Charges In Police Court.

On charges of an assault with a deadly weapon and disorderly conduct, Walter Murray, colored, was tried in the Mayor's court yesterday at noon and sent to jail in default of $50 bond in the first case and in the latter was fined $5 and the cost. Murray assaulted John William, colored, with a pistol at 17th and Market streets, Wednesday night and was afterwards arrested by Officer J. W. Jones.

J. T. Fletcher, a white man, on the charge of carrying a pistol concealed, through his attorney, Herbert McClammy, Esq., waived examination, and his bond was fixed at $50.

A few other defendants for minor offences were tried and the cases rapidly disposed of.

SCHOONER BARNET BURNED.

En Route From Boston to Brunswick, Ga., With Cargo of Lumber.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Boston, Mass., Nov. 8.—The burning at sea of the schooner Frank Barnet, was made known today in a private dispatch received by her owners, the George McQuestion Company, of this city. Captain Francis and crew of five men were rescued by the United Fruit Company's steamer Brewster and were landed in Jamaica today.

The Frank Barnet sailed from Boston October 27th, for Brunswick, Ga., in ballast to load lumber. The fire broke out on November 1st.

HER MAIDEN VOYAGE.

The German Steamer Elsa Menzell Arrives From Hamburg.

The German steamer Elsa Menzell, Capt. Audr, a sister ship of the German steamer Adelheid Menzell, which recently visited this port, also on her maiden voyage direct from the ship yards at Hamburg, Germany, arrived in port yesterday to discharge a cargo of kainit to the Wilmington Compress & Warehouse Company. She came here via Charleston, S. C., where she discharged part cargo.

The Elsa Menzell, like her sister ship, is of the most modern type, fitted with electric lights and crew accommodations and having a net tonnage of 3,200 tons, is among the largest vesels that ever came to this port. She will make regular runs between River Platte, South America, and Hamburg, Germany.

The British steamer Cromarty, Capt. Kraugh, cleared yesterday for Charleston, S. C., where she will discharge the remainder of her cargo of ammonia. She brought part cargo here for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company.

The British steamer Alicia Capt. Bennett, after discharging part cargo of kainit here to the Seaboard Air Line, also cleared yesterday for Norfolk, where she is to discharge the remainder of her cargo. The vessel was consignd to Heide & Co.

COLD WAVE IS HERE

Decided Drop in Temperature Yesterday—Frost Warning Issued.

With the temperature only five degrees above freezing at 8 o'clock yesterday morning and little moderation during the day, Wilmington experienced anything but pleasant outdoor weather yesterday when it is considered that a strong wind from the northeast prevailed along with the cold. The minimum for the day was 37 degrees and the maximum was 47 so that there was little variation. Overcoats and wraps were decidedly in order and fires were kindled on many hearthstones that had not known them before this season.

Yesterday morning the local Weather Bureau sent out a warning as follows: Fair tonight with killing frost. Friday fair with fresh north winds decreasing.

THE VIRGINIA CONSTITUTION.

Its Validity Upheld by Judge Goff of Federal Court.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Richmond, Va., Nov. 5.—Today in the United States Circuit Court Judge Goff handed down an opinion in the case of John W. Brickhouse, a negro, against C. T. Brooks and William Jessup, election judges of Norfolk county, in which the validity of the new Virginia Constitution was attacked on account of the failure of the members of the constitutional convention to take an oath to uphold the Federal Constitution. Brickhouse contended that the old Constitution stood and therefore he had been illegally deprived of his right to vote. The court held that Brickhouse's contention was without merit and that as the new Constitution had been declared valid by the Legislature and the Governor of Virginia it was in fact the Constitution of Virginia.

The opinion says that whether or not the Constitution is the Constitution of the State of Virginia, it is a political question not to be disposed of by the court, but by the Legislative departments of the State. These departments having declared it valid and in force it is therefore the fundamental law of the State, and will so remain until changed by the people of the State or overthrown, not by the courts, but by revolution.

The directors of the American Cotton Oil Company yesterday declared an annual dividend of 3 per cent. on the common stock and a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent. on the preferred stock. The dividend on the common stock is a reduction of one per cent. from the last previous annual dividend.

A SOCIETY FAD.

Wilmington's best people have certainly turned out to see the Little Russian Prince, who is exhibiting on the Midway at the Elksfest. Last night on his exhibition platform could be seen Lawyers, Doctors, Bankers, Merchants and Ministers with their families—people who have seen the best of everything including all the midgets from Tom Thumb up to the present time. All claim him to be the smallest mite of humanity they ever saw for an adult. A party of forty was made up last night of leading society people, who went especially to the grounds to see this interesting little man. The Elks are to be congratulated on having secured such a great attraction. Financially and otherwise, the committee claim that more people attend this exhibition than all the other shows combined. All the shows are good but this one seems to attract more attention among the better class of citizens than any of the others. A very prominent minister of one of the leading churches yesterday remarked that anyone who missed calling on the Little Prince would certainly be the loser as they would deny themselves a great privilege. The little fellow is a full fledged "Elk" and consequently is a great favorite among that order and their lady friends. He intends attending the convention of Elks that is to be held in Los Angeles, Cal. Our advice is don't miss seeing the little Prince if you want to see something that is really worth going miles to see.

The Theatre

The change of programme which went on at the Crystal Palace yesterday afternoon scored a big hit directly on the start and a large audience was present to greet the new acts and give them a hearty reception.

The programme was changed in its entirety and the acts are all bright and snappy and they are presented in most artistic manner. The new tricks performed by the Great Kalma were especially pleasing, being both of wonderful and attractive nature. The comedy work furnished by Minor and Vincent, and Wayne, black-face comedian, is exceedingly clever and keeps each audience roaring with laughter. The present bill will hold throughout the rest of the week, and Monday afternoon another big and new list of well known vaudevillejans will be presented.

Double Bill at the Bijou.

The Bijou will offer two big bills in moving pictures today, afternoon and evening. These will be "Two Clever Detectives" and "Fighting the Flames," the latter being a faithful portrayal of the great Coney Island production of the same name. "Two Clever Detectives" is the story of a clever burglar who enters a richly furnished home with laces to sell and while the lady of the house steps from the room a moment, he opens and rifles the safe of many costly jewels and family heirlooms. The lady returns when the burglar has departed with the valuables, hastens to a detective office, employs two men, who identify the thief from his picture in the rogue's gallery, locate him at a restaurant but are finally outwitted by the burglar who makes his escape, packs his trunks and gets to the railway station and leaves a few minutes before the detectives arrive. The secret service men give chase to the train in an automobile and finally overtake him at his destination. The fire fighting scenes are laid in England and will be found quite thrilling and interesting in comparison with the methods of American departments.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Returns So Far Show 175 Democrats and 216 Republicans.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The Republican party will, according to present returns from all Congressional districts in the United States, control the next National House of Representatives by a majority of 41. The figures so far received show the election of 216 Republicans and 175 Democrats, a gain for the latter of nine. The majorities in several districts are reported as extremely close and it is possible that in a few instances the official count may change the figures given above.

The table differs little from that published yesterday, except Colorado gives three Democratic and one Republican, one more Democrat is added to the list in Iowa, three more Republicans are added in Missouri, North Carolina gives three instead of one Republican, nine Democrats are elected in Ohio and 12 Republicans, three other Democrats are added from missing precincts in Pennsylvania, one more Republican is given to Rhode Island, South Dakota takes two out of the Republican column and places them in the Democratic, one more Democrat is added in Texas, one more Republican is added to the list in West Virginia.

A WOMAN AS NIGHT RIDER

Joined to Secure Their Secrets—Her Testimony to be Sensational.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 5.—A Union City dispatch says that Mrs. Ella Pride and other alleged night riders are held there under heavy guard until the habeas corpus proceedings now pending can be heard. Mrs. Pride, it is said, was secretary of the night riders' organization, but is now very bitter against them. She is reported to have been whipped by the riders. Later, she joined them in order to learn their secrets. Her testimony, it is believed, will be highly sensational.

Fifty writs are in the hands of the sheriff. He went to Camp Nemo today to serve them on Colonel Tatom.

A Camp Nemo dispatch says that Ed. Marshall alleged night rider, was released by the military authorities. All is reported quiet at the camp.

MORSE AND CURTIS CONVICTED.

Jury Recommended Clemency For Curtis—Bail Refused the Men.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 5.—Charles W. Morse, until a year ago a dominant figure in the world of finance, and Alfred H. Curtis, former president of the National Bank of North America, were found guilty tonight in the criminal branch of the United States Circuit Court on charges of misapplication of funds and falsifying the books of the bank. There was also the additional charge of conspiracy against the prisoners, but the jury acquitted the men on this count.

Judge Hough refused to entertain a motion for bail and committed the two bankers to the Tombs prison. Judge Hough said that he would hear any motions the lawyers for the prisoners desire to make.

HOW MURPHY EXPLAINS IT.

He Says the Landslide Pulled Hughes Through.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 5.—"The Taft landslide pulled Hughes through," was the explanation of Charles F. Murphy, Tammany Hall leader, of the failure of the Democratic candidate to win the contest for Governor. "The election is over," continued Mr. Murphy, "and we are starting to carry the city next fall in the local election."

Asked regarding a reported movement to depose him from the leadership, the Tammany chieftain replied: "Yes there's always been such a movement—among a few."

STEAMER WHITNEY SUNK

Collided With Steep Rock in East River—Valued at $500,000.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 5.—The freight steamer H. M. Whitney, of the Metropolitan Steamship Line, was sunk tonight in the East river while on her way to Boston. The vessel, valued at $500,000 is a total loss and it is not believed that any of her cargo, valued at $300,000 can be recovered.

The steamer in trying to avoid collision with a tow, collided with steep rock. A great hole was made below the water line. The inrush of water was so rapid that in less than a minute the fires were put out and nine stokers who were in the engine room had to flee for their lives.

An effort was made to beach the steamer but without success. The crew escaped in their lifeboats. As they were rowing away the freighter went down in ten fathoms of water. The H. M. Whitney was build at the Cramp shipyards in Philadelphia in 1902. She had a length overall of 271.8 feet and her gross tonnage was 2,706.

A CORRECTION.

Rehearing Not Refused in International Text Book Co., vs. Pigg.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Nov. 5.—On October 19th, the Associated Press sent a dispatch from this city to the effect that in the United States Supreme Court the International Text Book Company was denied a rehearing in its suit against Aaron T. Pigg, of Topeka, Kan. It now appears that this was an error caused by a mistake of the Supreme Court Clerk, who confused this case with another having a like number on the Court Calendar. The case of the International Text Book Company against Pigg has not yet been argued.

THE SLEEPING SICKNESS WHICH MEANS DEATH

How many readers have heard of this terrible disease? It prevails in that far-away country—Africa—especially the Congo district. It is caused by the bite of the tsetse fly. When it bites a person, the sleeping symptoms begin and finally the sufferer sleeps until death occurs.

Contrast this with the peaceful, balmy sleep of health. Is there anything more wearing than to lie awake at night, tossing about, nervous, with cold feet, hot head and mercy knows what else? Short of letting the tsetse fly bite us we would do almost anything for relief. How can we prevent it? Mr. George Hayes, of Union City, Pa., writes: "I had lost my appetite, was all run-down, could not sleep nights. I had tried everything without relief. Vinol was recommended, and to my surprise, it helped me at once; gave me a splendid appetite, and now I sleep soundly."

What Vinol did for Mr. Hayes, it will do for every run-down, nervous and overworked person who cannot sleep.

VINOL is sold in Wilmington by Robert R. Bellamy, Druggist.

SQUADRON LEAVES CHINA

Parting Warships Were Given Big Demonstration—Chinese Delighted With Visit—Sails For Olongapo.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Amoy, China, Nov. 5.—The second squadron of the American battleship fleet, which under the command of Rear Admiral Emory, has been in Amoy, since October 30th as the guest of the government of China, brought its visit to a close this morning when at 8 o'clock it steamed out of the harbor, bound for Olongapo to join the first squadron under Admiral Sperry. The distance to Olongapo is about 700 miles and the vessels should reach there on November 8th.

The departing warships were given a demonstration in marked contrast to the apathy which was noticeable on their arrival. The hills behind the beach were black with people who had assembled to view the spectacle and the firing of crackers continued for one hour.

Promptly at half past seven signals were made on board the flagship and at 8 o'clock the entire squaron was underway. As the American vessels passed the Chinese cruiser Fei Ying their crews greeted the officials on board with rousing cheers and at the same time the Chinese fort hoisted the American flag beside the standard of China and saluted the departing guests. This salute was returned by the American flagship.

The cost of the reception has exceeded $1,000,000. The Chinese government has been lavish in its gifts to the American officers and men and the final official function on shore last night, the entertainment afforded by the Chinese government was declared by the Americans to have been with the exception of Australia second to none. The Chinese are delighted with the visit and they comment especially upon the excellent deportment of the American sailors. The battleship Georgia, the flagship of Admiral Emory will leave the fleet and go to Hong Kong where Admiral Emory will take liner for home. She will then continue for Olongapo on the Island of Luzon, and join the other vessels there.

The admirals of the fleet and their staff, the commanding officers of the various vessels and the midshipmen were last night entertained at a dinner on shore for the last time.

"Chuck It, Duke!"

While the Duke of Connaught was in Cairo he went for a stroll one morning, and on his way back to his quarters he came face to face with an old Englishman wearing the ribbon of the Indian mutiny on his breast. The duke stopped and spoke to the man about his military service for some little time. Presently the man said not knowing, of course, to whom he was speaking, "Are you in the army yourself, then, sir?" The duke smiled and admitted that he was. "Getting on all right?" was the next question The duke smiled again and said that he had not very much to grumble at on the whole, though perhaps he was not doing quite so well as he could wish. "No, and you never will, my boy," was the surprising retort of the veteran. "What you want in the army today is either brains or a tremendous amount of influence behind you. You may take my tip, old chap, and chuck it!"—London T. P. O.

Fencing With Umbrellas.

Recently a French publication printed a picture of some American girls fencing with umbrellas and stated that they were trying to acquire thus the necessary skill and assurance to parry, with a simple gesture, an attack of Apaches.

It also stated that this sport was not born in America; that for several years in France a noted fencing mistress, Mme. Guillemot, at the same time that she taught fencing with the sword for hygienic reasons and for personal defense, also taught her pupils to "play" with the umbrella.

The article finishes by saying that it is certainly "piquant" that this modern application of an ancient sport was taught by a Parisienne long before America claimed the original idea.

THE ANT EATER.

A Harmless Animal That Will Fight Hard When at Bay.

A peculiar looking animal is the ant eater, which is closely allied to the sloth family. Its head is drawn out into a long, tubular muzzle, at the end of which is a tiny mouth just big enough to permit the exit of its long, wormlike tongue, which is covered with a sticky saliva.

This tongue is thrust among the hosts of ants with great rapidity, coming back laden with the tiny insects. To obtain its prey the ant eater breaks open the ant hills, when all the active inhabitants swarm to the breach and are instantaneously swept away by the remorseless tongue.

The jaws of the ant eater are entirely without teeth, and the eyes and ears are very small.

There are several species of ant eater, the largest kind being about four feet long and having a tail covered with very long hair, forming a huge brush. The claw on the third toe of each fore limb is of great size and is used for breaking open ants' and other insects' nests.

Generally speaking, the ant eater is a harmless animal, but at times when at bay it will fight with great courage, sitting up on its hind legs and hugging its foe with its powerful arms. —London Express.

The Perfumed Cloud.

The dentist's sleeve was smeared with a pale dust. He beat it with his palm, and a perfumed cloud arose.

"Makeup," he said, laughing, "the day's usual harvest of makeup. Why the deuce, to front the fierce white light of a dental chair, will women come to me with makeup plastered thick on their pretty faces? They all, or nearly all, do it. Their lips are reddened, their brows penciled, their cheeks rouged, and in a few cases the tiny network of veins in the temples is outlined in blue. Pegging away at their teeth, I mop up all that makeup on my coat sleeve. I smear red over white noses, black over pink cheeks. Phew! Look out!"

And, brushing his cuff again, he leaped back to escape the sweet smelling cloud that filled the air. —Exchange.

Difficult Feats.

"Here are some extracts from a few modern popular novels," said an author as he took down a scrap book. Then he read:

"'The worthy pastor appeared at the manse door, his hands thrust deep in the pockets of his loose jacket, while he turned the leaves of his prayer book thoughtfully and wiped his glasses with a distraught air.'

"'After the door was closed a stealthy foot slipped into the room and with cautious hand extinguished the light.'

"'Fitzgibbon lingered over his final lemonade, when a gentle voice tapped him on the shoulder, and, turning, he beheld his old friend once again.'

"'The chariot of revolution is rolling onward, gnashing its teeth as it rolls.'" —Washington Star.

Greedy Little Salmon.

Little creatures may be very greedy and yet not be able to eat much because of their size, as was illustrated, for instance, in the case of a batch of about 20,000 little Chinook salmon that were hatched out at the aquarium. These young fishes, each about two inches long, would eat so much that their little stomachs fairly stuck out, and yet to feed the whole 20,000 took daily only one pound of liver and a quart of herring roe, both chopped fine.—New York Sun.

A NEW NAME FOR ALL TROUBLE

DEEPLY INTERESTING TALK

Col. Dillingham's Lecturer Discusses Catarrh and Explains the Manner in Which it Attacks Various Organs.

The people of Wilmington have recognized the value of the free lectures delivered in connection with Col. F. A. Dillingham's Plant Juice entertainment and are showing their appreciation by liberal attendance at these nightly talks. These lectures are devoted to the common ills of every day life and the information imparted is of inestimable value to the public.

The lecture delivered by Mr. Mills, Col. Dillingham's local representative, on catarrh is one that will interest a large number of people, owing to the prevalence of this disease in this locality. During his discussion of this subject Mr. Mills said:

Summer catarrh is a term that orignated with Col. Dillingham. The prevalence of catarrhal diseases in summer is not generally understood. Of course the catarrh of summer differs from the catarrh of winter. But it is the atmosphere that furnishes the occasion for catarrh in the winter season, and which is taken into the system through the respiratory organs—the nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. It follows that in winter those organs will be most affected. However, in summer it is altogether different. The use of unripe fruit or green vegetables or other improper foods often produces catarrh in other parts of the body, especially the alimentary canal. Thus it is that we contract catarrh of the stomach, bowels and pelvic organs.

"There are three sets of organs liable to catarrh, each set of which is liable from a distinctly different source. These organs include the nose, throat and lungs, that come in direct contact with the atmosphere, and so acquire catarrh. The most unfavorable season for these is winter; so it is usually called winter catarrh.

"Catarrh of the alimentary tract is called summer catarrh because it is more frequent during the summer than the winter, as these organs are exposed to the effects of improper food and drink, and are greatly influenced by sudden heating and chilling."

Dillingham's Plant Juice is one of the few remedies that can be depended upon to cure catarrh in all its various forms. It has cured thousands of cases as shown by the sworn affidavits and testimonials given by grateful persons who have been relieved.

The demand for the Plant Juice remedies in Wilmington continues to increase with each day, this being especially true of the orders received through the mails.

Colonel W. P. Price, aged 71, for many years president of the Board of Trustees of the North Georgia Agricultural College at Daplonega, Ga., died at that place yesterday. Colonel Price was a native of Georgia, a Confederate veteran, member of the lower House from Georgia in the 41st and 42nd Congresses, and had served in both the Georgia and South Carolina Legislatures, having resided at Greenville, S. C., before and after the Civil war.

—Our Home: There's going to be a strong effort next week to line up every legitimate interest in the South on the side of higher-priced cotton. At New Orleans the 11th and 12th one of the biggest conventions of farmers ever held in this country will convene under the leadership of President Barrett, of the Farmers' Union. At the same time another great Southern convention will meet at Memphis, under leadership of Harvey Jordan, president of the Southern Cotton Association. The former represents the organized farmers of the South, while the latter represents all business interests in the South. The object of each convention is the same. It would seem at first thought, that both should have been held at the same place, but more people will attend by holding them at separate places, and the effect will be greater, perhaps, than if both had been held at the same place. The Farmers' Union in North Carolina will be represented by probably 40 or 50 delegates, while as many, no doubt, will attend the Memphis convention, from this State.

The C. W. POLVOGT COMPANY

"THE STORE THAT'S ALWAYS BUSY"

We do not stop short of Parisian ideas. We get for our customers the best quality and the latest styles. When you get a package with our name on it there is something good inside. A fair price for good merchandise is our way of doing business. Our stock now contains myriads of imported novelties—we shall be pleased to have you come and inspect our latest arrivals. We especially instruct our sales-people to civilly show goods and not to insist that those who look at them shall buy.

There are Swell Garments in our Cloak room yet. Coat Suits are selling rapidly. We hit the mark as to styles and customers are appreciating it, and buying our suits; new and attractive ones are arriving daily this week—all the new shades are shown. Don't delay too long; your size may be gone.

Exclusive Millinery will be found in our up-to-date Millinery Department.

LADIES' AND CHILDRENS FURS.

We have got to confess that if we knew how the weather would have been in October our fur purchases would have been half and less. However, it is an ill wind that does'nt blow some good. So we have made the price so that furs will fly from now until all are sold.

The Phœnix Muffler

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Gastonia News: The Gaston farmers' warehouse will be opened for business about the 11th of November. Mr. H. L. Lineberger will be in charge of the warehouse, grading the cotton, etc. Mr. Lineberger has been taking a course in grading cotton at Milledgeville, Ga.

—Monroe Enquirer: Monroe is to have an ice factory. A number of the leading business men of the town have taken stock in the new enterprise and the company has been incorporated. Work on the new factory will be pushed. The location of the ice plant has not yet been decided upon.

—Gastonia Gazette: A most distressing accident occurred in the Avon settlement Saturday afternoon about 7 o'clock when Mrs. Myrtle Cloaninger, the young wife of Mr. Ural Cloaninger, was so severely burned that she died at 2 o'clock Sunday morning after suffering agonies for about eight hours. It is the old story of an attempt to build a fire with kerosene oil.

—Statesville Landmark: Did you ever know the month of October to pass in this locality without a killing frost? Major Geo. W. Clegg, of Statesville, who is 83 years old and has always been a close observer, thinks the October which ended Saturday is a record-breaker in this respect, it being the first, so far as his recollection goes, in which there was no killing frost.

—Gastonia News: Probably the oldest piece of kitchen furniture in Gaston county is an old-fashioned rolling pin belonging to Mr. Elam Robinson. The pin was bought by Mr. Robinson's ancestors and has been known to be in the family for 140 years. It was bought at a sale of a Mr. Cox and has been in constant use until a new one was bought to take its place last Saturday.

—Gastonia Gazette: In conversation yesterday with a prominent business man of the Pleasant Ridge section of the county the reporter learned that a movement has been inaugurated with all prospects of being carried to a successful issue, to establish at Pleasant Ridge an independent cotton seed oil mill. The capital stock, it is understood, is to be $25,000, of which amount $10,000 has already been subscribed. There will be a number of stockholders.

—Our Home: The cotton weigher at Marshville requests everybody to keep cotton dry. It seems strange that men of average sense will never learn that the South is losing more than $12,000,000 every year because farmers do not shelter their cotton, and that it is worse than folly to expose to weather the product that represents the sweat and toil of their women and children. Ignorance has cost the South more money than all other causes combined. Keep your cotton under shelter.

—Charlotte Observer: The month of his majesty the gobbler, is at hand and very few days remain until his stately presence will be observed on the Charlotte market. Although the day of his doom is three weeks off, it is a custom grown old with the usage of many years to have him appear on the market in good advance of the time of his beheading, merely for appetizing purpose. Cranberries, celery, malaga grapes, and all those edibles which serve as a background for turkey flesh on the table are already on the market awaiting the arrival of their supreme lord. The life of the gobbler has about run its course.

—Statesville, Nov. 4.—What seems almost a miraculous escape from death is the case of Mr. Noah Sloan, whose head was so badly crushed by the kick of a mule some months ago that he lay at the point of death at his home north of Statesville for weeks. Only three weeks ago he was reported in a dying condition and now he is able to come to town after a load of fertilizer. However, the wound on his head is still in a dangerous condition, but it is thought that it will heal without further trouble if Mr. Sloan takes care of himself. The physicians predict a complete recovery. Those who saw the hole in Mr. Sloan's head, which exposed his brain, had no hopes whatever that he would ever get well enough to walk.

—Greensboro Record: This morning as a Record man was racing along the street in pursuit of news he spied ex-Judge S. B. Adams coming along South Elm. At the McAdoo office building he turned in the areaway, which is about four feet wide. As he entered, ex-Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson, of counsel for Butler in the now famous libel suit brought by Judge Adams, came down the elevator and was coming toward the street. The reporter stopped to see if they would "speak as they passed by," but nary a speak; both men glared at each other, heads up, but as they passed, Judge Adams brushed against Judge Robinson. Quick as a flash both men turned and the latter, pointing his finger at the former, made some remark inaudible very far away. Judge Adams, however, was more noisy and said—"Then get out of my way!" There they stood, glaring at each other, while The Record man expected to see a first-class fight and had his pad out ready to chronicle it, but not a blow was struck and in a second or two each turned and went his way.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FOR MEN WHO CARE TO DRESS WELL

THE Barry Shoe

Of course, Father Time is a little bit too much for any shoe, no matter how well it is made or how worthy the materials may be, but he has a harder task when he tackles a pair of Barry Shoes, Union Made, than he does in disposing of any other shoe we know of.

That means that Barry Shoes will wear longer and hold their shape better than any other shoe you ever wore.

They are full of Style, as well—handsome, snappy, up-to-date shoes.

We recommend them strongly to the "men who care to dress well," and who seek comfort as well as style, and who want the best shoes their money can buy—there are reasons why you personally should wear Barry Shoes—come in and try on the shoes, and some of these reasons will be clear to you—buy and wear them and you will never wear any other kind.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 5.—The cotton market showed a further reactionary tendency today, closing steady at a net decline of 2 to 9 points. Sales were estimated at 225,000 bales.

The market opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 2 points and after some irregularity sold 3 to 4 points net higher as a result of better cables than due, covering and some fresh buying promoted by optimistic reports concerning the prospects for a settlement of Manchester labor troubles within the next week. Offerings increased at the advance and during the afternoon the market worked off under realizing and local selling for a turn based to some extent on the talk of a less active spot demand from domestic mills and exporters.

The market closed within a point or two of the lowest. Weather reports were considered favorable. Receipts were large and the into-sight movement for the week is expected to establish another high record.

Receipts at the ports today were 62,632 bales, against 64,889 last week and 41,130 last year; for the week 425,000 bales against 447,682 last week and 366,777 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 16,367 bales against 8,726 last year and at Houston 18,528 bales against 11,584 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet, 10 points decline; middling uplands 9.25; middling gulf 9.50; sales none. Futures opened steady and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 5.—The cotton goods market is advancing. Wide sheetings and southern colored cottons have been advanced. Ginghams and bleached goods are being placed at value. Cotton yarns are higher and firmer. Men's wear lines are being ordered more freely for spring. Recovery is noted in the dress goods markets. There is a better call in the jobbing houses for seasonable goods and there has been quite an uplift in the inquiry for holiday goods.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 5.—The stock market today was unsettled and hesitating. The decreased aggregate from yesterday evidently marked the satisfaction of the first eager demand induced by the election results. Stocks were fed out freely to meet this demand from the outset. All bids were filled promptly. Afterwards there was a disposition to push the sales at concessions.

The impression thus made of the market having arrived at a stage that discounts the favorable factors was emphasized by its active response to the announcement of the plan for disbursing $11.26 extra profits on each share of old Northern Pacific stock, the new stock on which the final 12 1-2 per cent. of subscriptions is payable in January not sharing in the "melon," Northern Pacific itself had sold as high as 150 1-2 after the opening, but fell to 148 1-4 before the dividend announcement and did not rally to above 149 1-2 afterwards. The company is at some pains to declare in the official statement of the dividend disbursement that "no part has been derived from the transportation business." The derivation of these profits, in fact, is somewhat obscure. The Northwestern Improvement Company, the stock of which is owned by the Northern Pacific, owns coal and timber lands in Montana and Washington. Its $2,775,000 stock in the Northern Pacific treasury is valued at $2,775,000 in the annual report of the company. The amount to be withdrawn from its assets to provide for the $11.26 per share dividend on $155,000,000 of Northern Pacific stock is $17,543,000. Possibly the weakening of the stock after the news became known owed something to an apprehension of a sharpening of legislative pursuit of the company.

Money rates were slightly firmer, both on call and on time. The sagging tendency of railroad stocks was restrained by the show of strength among the industrials, especially the metal group. United States Steel went to 51, the highest since the flotation of the company.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, were $7,818,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today were 1,114,700 shares.

A STATEMENT FROM BRYAN

Impossible Now to Say What Causes Contributed Most to Defeat.

THE DEMOCRATIC FIGHT

Made Upon Platform Containing What Was Believed to be for Good of People—Believes People Will Yet Adopt Principles.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 5.—William J. Bryan today gave out the following statement:

"The election has gone against us by a decisive majority. The returns are not all in and it is impossible at the present time to analyze them or to say what causes contribute most to the Republican victory.

"We made our fight upon a platform which embodied what we believed to be good for the American people, but it is for the people themselves to decide what laws they desire and what methods of Government they prefer. I have faith that the publicity which we asked for will yet commend itself to the American people; that the election of Senators by the people will be secured; that the iniquities of the trusts will arouse an opposition that will result in the elimination of the principle of private monopoly. I am confident that the people will see the necessity for the labor legislation and the tariff reduction which our platform demanded. I am confident, too, that the educational work done in this campaign will result in securing greater protection to bank depositors.

"The above are the most prominent reforms for which we labored, and I believe that these reforms will yet come, together with more effective regulation of railroads and independence for the Filipinos.

"I desire to commend the work of our national committee. I am entirely satisfied with Mr. Mack as the chairman and with the members of the committee. I do not see how they could have done more than they did, and as for myself, I put forth every effort in my power to secure victory for our cause. The nomination came from the hands of the voters. I have obeyed their command and have led as best I could. Words will not express my gratitude for the willingness of the Democrats during the past twelve years. Neither am I able adequately to express my appreciation for the kind words which have been spoken since the election. If I could regard the defeat as purely a personal one I would consider it a blessing rather than a misfortune, for I am relieved of the burdens and responsibilities of an office that is attractive only in proportion as it gives an opportunity to render a larger public service.

"But I shall serve as willingly in a private capacity as in a public one. God does not require great things of us. He only requires that we improve the opportunities that are presented and I shall be glad to improve the opportunities for service presented by private life.

"In this hour of national defeat I find some consolation in the cordial support given by my neighbors, by the citizens of Lincoln and by the people of the State of Nebraska. With a Democratic governor and a Democratic Legislature we shall be able to put into practice so much of the Denver platform, as relates to State Legislation and I trust that our State will set an example that will be an influence for good in the nation."

MARYLAND REMAINS DOUBTFUL STATE

Strong Indications That The State's Vote Will be Split.

BOTH PARTIES CLAIM IT

Missouri Appears Safely For Taft by Plurality of 4,000—Congressional Returns Give Republicans Forty-one Majority.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 5.—The membership of the electoral college which will choose the next President of the United States, remained in dispute when the official counters in Maryland abandoned their task for the night. According to the best information obtainable the best proportionate numbers of Republican and Democratic electors will be determined by a division of Maryland's eight votes. Half of the city of Baltimore and two of the 23 counties outside of that city are still to be counted but there is a strong indication that the State's voe will be split. In any event, the margin of victory will be so small that the State was claimed tonight by the leaders of both parties.

In 1904 Maryland elected one Republican and seven Democratic electors.

Missouri appears to be safely for Taft, to whom the latest returns give a plurality of 4,000 with the prospects that the few final districts will double or triple these figures.

Conceding Missouri to Taft and leaving Maryland to be split between him and Bryan, the figures show 319 Republican electors and 156 Democratic.

Latest Congressional returns indicate that the next House will be composed of 216 Republicans and 175 Democrats, majority for the Republicans of 41.

The returns for the Socialist and Prohibition parties are still far from complete, but indicate that the hopes of the Socialists have not been realized and that the Prohibitionists in certain sections, where gains have been expected, have been disappointed. The figures for the Independence party vote are also insufficient to give an accurate idea of what the party accomplished.

Maryland Vote Will be Split.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 5.—The official canvass of Tuesday's vote was begun in Maryland today and completed in 21 out of the 23 counties outside of Baltimore city. In Baltimore it was but half finished when the board of canvassers suspended its labors tonight. Until this count is completed the result will remain in doubt. In some counties there was a wide difference in the vote on Presidential electors on both tickts which made the situation more complicated. It is generally conceded, however, that Maryland's vote in the electoral college will be split.

St. Louis, Nov. 5.—Returns practically complete from the entire State give Taft a plurality over Bryan in Missouri of 2,228.

Sanders Defeats Parsons.

Danville, Va., Nov. 5.—The complete returns from the Fifth district as received by the Register tonight show that Judge Saunders has been re-elected to Congress over Parsons, Republican, by a majority of 87.

The official majorities are: Saunders—Danville 797; Pottsylvania 495; Franklin 294; Henry 28. Parsons—Carroll 746; Grayson 475; Patrick 306.

The Democrats do not believe that there will be any contest over the election unless the Republicans dcide to fight it out on the ground that Floyd county was recently taken from the Fifth and placed in the Sixth.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 5.—While official returns from Tuesday's election will not be available for several days the estimated vote of the various parties in South Carolina is as follows: Bryan 55,000; Taft 2,000; Independence party 90; Socialist 50.

Additional Returns.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Election returns at 6 o'clock tonight leave Maryland doubtful with Taft leading by a slight margin and probability of a division of the State's electoral vote.

In Missouri Taft leads by 479 votes on incomplete returns. Hadley, Republican, is elected for Governor by 15,173, and there is a Democratic majority of four on joint ballot in Legislature.

Today's returns indicate:

Colorado—Bryan by 5,577, Democratic Governor and Legislature and all three Congressmen.

Ohio—Taft by 75,000; Harmon, Democrat, Governor by 20,000; entire Republican ticket elected except Governor; Republican Legislature.

West Virginia—Taft by 20,459; Republican Governor and Legislature.

Indiana—Taft by 10,000; Marshall, Democrat, Governor by 15,000. Apparently Democratic Legislature.

New York—Taft by 202,000; Hughes Governor by 70,000.

Kansas—Taft by 25,000; Republican Governor.

Minnesota—Taft by 80,000; Johnson, Democrat, Governor by 15,000.

California—Taft by 75,000.

Illinois—Taft by 175,000; Republican Governor by 40,000.

Washington—Taft by 40,000; Republican Legislature and Congressmen.

Michigan—Taft by 150,000; Republican Governor by 8,000.

Nevada—Bryan by 1,500; Democratic Legislature.

Iowa—Taft by 57,000; entire Republican State ticket by 50,000 and upwards.

Oklahoma—Bryan by 25,000; Democratic Legislature.

Georgia—Total vote: Democratic 70,800; Republican 39,000; People's party 17,200; Prohibitionists 750; Independence 85.

Pennsylvania—Taft by 290,000.
Tennessee—Bryan by 35,500.
Texas—Bryan by 165,000.
Arkansas—Bryan by 26,000.
Mississippi—Bryan by 49,000.
Alabama—Bryan by 57,000.
Louisiana—Bryan by 48,894.

SUIT TO DISSOLVE STANDARD RESUMED

Blaustein Was Permitted To Correct Some of His Testimony.

ALL BELONGED TO TRUST

Eureka Company Under Standard's Management Was Operating in Norfolk, Durham and Burlington—Exposed.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Nov. 5.—Frank B. Kellogg, counsel for the Government in its suit to dissolve the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, resumed charge of the hearing today. Louis Blaustein, of Baltimore, a special agent of the Standard was on the witness stand again today and asked to be allowed to correct some of his testimony, in which he said that he took 50 per cent. of the trade from the Standard Oil agent in Norfolk, Va., where he went for the company and used the name of the "Eureka Oil Company, to "wake up" the resident agent. His corrected testimony was accepted. He stated that he had increased the sales by one-half more than when the opposition business was started. The witness said that everybody in the trade knew that he was a Standard Oil man but for business reasons it would not do to make it public. The witness said he made reports of his sales at Durham to the Standard and the fact was also brought out that the Eureka Company was doing business at other places besides Durham, Norfolk and Burlington.

Mr. Blaunstein was later recalled for further cross examination. He admitted that the Eureka Oil Company and the Eagle Oil Company, while operated as independent companies, were in reality ramifications of the Standard Oil. He had started the Eagle Company, he said, in order to secure the trade of his old Baltimore customers. To do this he had to extend credit, a thing the Standard Oil Company would not do. An adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

BRYAN TO TAFT

Conceded the Election to Republican and Sends Best Wishes.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 5.—Please accept congratulations and best wishes for the success of your administration. (Signed) W. J. Bryan."

"I thank you sincerely for your cordial and courteous telegram of congratulation and good wishes. (Signed) William H. Taft."

These messages were today exchanged between Lincoln, Neb., and Cincinnati. The message from Mr. Bryan came while Judge Taft was addressing the general conference of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church. He received the message on his return to his residence and answered it at once.

In his address to the women Judge Taft gave an enthusiastic commendation of foreign mission work. His experience in the Far East, he said, had taught him the value of this work in uplifting those people, and he commented upon the elevating effect of Christianity upon the heathen women. The Philippines, Judge Taft asserted the present degree of success in civilization and government was made possible through the influence of Christianity.

Cincinnati, Nov. 5.—Speaking to the Cincinnati Commercial Club, of which he has been a member for fifteen years, William Howard Taft tonight sounded the key note of prosperity for the country for the next four years.

"Every business man who is obeying the law may go ahead with all the energy in his possession; every enterprise which is within the statutes may proceed without fear of interference from the administration when acting legally; but all interests within the jurisdiction of the Federal government may expect a rigid enforcement of the laws against dishonest methods" was the key note of what Mr. Taft said.

NAVAL DEFENSE IN EAST

Rear Admiral Pillsbury Recommends Establishment Defense of Naval Bases in Philippines—Jamestown Site For Barracks.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Nov. 5.—Attention is strongly invited in the annual report of Rear Admiral Pillsbury, chief of the Navigation Bureau to the lack of a defended naval base in either the American Insular possessions in the East or the Carribean Sea, the probable theatres of action in any war in which the Navy might be called to engage. So important is this question believed to be that, in Admiral Pillsbury's opinion, all appropriations for new improvements at naval stations or for defense of coast ports, should give way to the establishment and the defense of naval bases in the Philippines, at Pearl Harbor and at Guantanamo, for these bases are vital to our success in war.

Much space in the report is devoted to the cruise of the Atlantic battleship fleet and to a recital of the benefits and advantages which have accrued alike to the navy in every way from the experience through which the men and vessels have gone.

The land of the late Jamestown Exposition is well located for barracks and a naval training station says Admiral Pillsbury and he urgently recommends its acquisition. The Chesapeake Bay is a natural place of assembly for our Atlantic fleet. Pending the building of barracks and a training station on Chesapeake Bay it is recommended that temporary structures be erected at Norfolk, not to exceed $60,000 in cost.

VANDYKE PLEADED GUILTY

On Charge of Conspiracy to Defraud United States.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Nov. 5.—Edwin VanDyck, former ink expert of the bureau of engraving and printing who, with Victor G. Bloede president of the Victor G. Bloede Company, of Baltimore, was indicted January 6th last charged with conspiracy to defraud the United States in connection with certain ink contracts with the bureau today withdrew a plea of not guilty and entered a plea of guilty to two counts of the indictment. Justice Gould fined VanDyck $10,000, double the amount imposed on Bloede recently for his share in the affair, because VanDyck was a government employee. VanDyck paid the fine and the two remaining counts of the indictment were then dismissed.

MINERS ARE ENTOMBED

Terrific Explosion in Illinois Mine. Impossible to Reach Men.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Benton, Ills., Nov. 5.—An explosion at the mine of Colonel W. P. Bond three miles west of Benton, late today, wrecked the shaft and as a result four shot firers are entombed.

So terrific was the explosion that a car and pieces of railroad track were hurled from the bottom to the top of the shaft, more than 600 feet demolishing a steel tipple.

It is impossible to reach the firers and their fate is unknown. A large force of men is trying to clear away the wreckage, but the work is proceeding slowly.

The names of the entomber miners are George Reed, Patrick Dailey, Perry Stevens and John Holmes.

For participating in games with the Logan Square Independent Club, in Chicago, which is in violation of the rules of the National Baseball Commission, nine players of the Chicago American League Club have been placed on the ineligible list by a ruling promulgated by the commission yesterday.
